The Independent Time & Labor Management Association (ITLMA) offers extensive Information, Benefits and Programs to our members, including: Newsletters, Best Practices Education Seminars, Annual Convention, Access to Leading Industry Experts, Membership List, Discounts
The ITLMA offers extensive Information, Benefits and Programs to our members:

The Newsletter

The Newsletter "Marking Time" is a quarterly digest of news and views that are of interest to members. New products and promotions, Trade-ins and hard-to-get parts for sale, Service and sales tips, The latest developments and involvement of your Association and its members, PLUS information which you should know about to aid you in successfully running your company. We also encourage the members to submit articles of interest to the membership, for publication.

Annual Convention

Our annual convention is the highlight of each year. Manufacturers display their products and eagerly await your arrival, questions and suggestions. The membership meets in convention to elect officers and act upon Association business. Entertainment is plentiful for everyone, whether you come alone or bring your entire family. Convention cities and areas are always those which you would like to visit. The sharing of ideas; development of new friendships and discussing the business with someone who understands makes this a memorable event which lasts the entire year.
