

Qqest to Host Showcase at ITLMA Conference

Written by Michael Hoover

Tuesday, 14 June 2011 13:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 15 June 2011 11:48

How many Suspects do you talk to before you find a Prospect? Before you have an actual demonstration? Before you successfully close the sale? To increase your odds both in Las Vegas and in the labor management fields, talk to Qqest at the 33rd Annual Independent Time & Labor Management Association in Las Vegas, Nevada on June 16th and 17th. See you there!

About Qqest

Qqest (pronounced "Q-Quest") provides real solutions to today's complex workforce and workplace management issues. Since 1992, we've focused solely on engineering meaningful and effective solutions to help businesses truly leverage their assets.

Qqest serves 35,000+ businesses in all 50 states. Some customers use all of our tools and services, others use just those meeting their current needs. We're here for you when those needs change and grow.

Our History

Qqest was established in 1992 with the vision of automating equipment and labor management.

The unique spelling of our name originated from our first software product, "Quick Quote Estimating Software Technologies." This original software evolved into what is now known as ManagerPlus and is used by various industries where maintaining equipment, grounds or facilities is paramount.

For more information please visit www.mytimeforce.com .